Woman Writer Makes Sensational Statements.

INDIANS ARE MISTREATED

And Mrs. Helen Pierce Grey Declares Officials at Washington Must Be Aware of the Fact—She Was Arrested While Making Investigation.

Washington, April 3.—Mrs. Helen Pierce Grey, the newspaper writer, arrested last summer because of her connection with the protests of Crow Indians against the manner in which the government agents managed the Crow reservation in Montana, resumed her statement before the senate committee on Indian affairs. She charged that to keep from starving the Indians were compelled to eat the meat of diseased cattle and sheep; that they were frequently thrown into jail without cause and kept at the mercy of the agents; that the children of the government reservation school were mistreated. She stated positively that all of these things must have been done with the knowledge of some of the officials at Washington. Another interesting chapter was added also to her account of her own experiences as an investigator.

That some of the members of the committee were impressed by the character of the charges which Mrs. Grey said were susceptible of proof was evidenced from the character of the cross-examination. It is not unlikely that a general investigation will be ordered.

Mrs. Grey read from a prepared statement. It developed that she had made this at the suggestion of Senator Owen and Senator Clapp and that she had conferred with Senator Teller concerning the case. During her testimony Secretary Garfield, who is involved in her sweeping charges, was present. Mrs. Grey was describing her experience and in telling of the six times she was arrested and of the attempt on the part of Indian Agent Reynolds to trump up a charge of insanity against her, said that Mr. Garfield, when in Billings, Mont., told the chief of police that she was a "dangerous blackmailer and adventurer."

Statement Declared Untrue.

"That statement is without any foundation whatever," declared Mr. Garfield.

Mrs. Grey responded that the chief of police would testify to the contrary. Mrs. Grey said that Mr. Garfield was in Billings, which place is near the Crow reservation, while many of the indignities against her had been committed and could not have been ignorant of what has been going on.

She said that Indians were constantly mistreated and that when they were thrown into jail that act constituted the whole legal procedure; that no charges were brought and the time of incarceration depended upon the will of the Indian agent. In her own case she declared that charges were brought against her on the sixth arrest.

Previous to that proceeding she was put in jail over night and that ended the matter. On one occasion she said that Agent Reynolds had threatened to incarcerate her with an Indian, but that the feeling was such that he did not dare to carry out his purpose.

Passing on the alleged mismanagement of Indian affairs, Mrs. Grey said it was current report that Senator Carter was part owner of Charlie Bear's sheep. She had testified previously that Bear, through influence with the agent, had pastured about 125,000 sheep on the reservation, while paying for 35,000 head.

"Why do you not investigate this matter before bringing charges against Senator Carter?" asked Senator Dixon.

"How far would you have me go?" demanded Mrs. Grey; "I was arrested six times for making investigations."

Indians Knew Meat Was Diseased.

Mrs. Grey said that while Mr. Dalby, former secretary to Mr. Garfield, was investigating the conditions on the reservation he had been told at one of the Indian councils at Gordon, that the Indians knew they were eating lumpy jaw cattle and sheep that had died of disease, but that it was "either eat that or starve."

Mrs. Grey broke down in reciting the alleged wrongs perpetrated upon the Indians and with a voice trembling with emotion she almost sobbed:

"Sheep that die by disease is what the Indians get. The white man gets their land and the live sheep."

Proceeding, Mrs. Grey said that the Indians were absolutely helpless; that if they protested they were thrown into jail. She said she "could not see how senators can have this thing put up to them and pass it by." She declared that protests to the Indian office had been made without number and that invariably they had resulted in bringing punishment upon the Indians, owing to the fact that complaints were always sent back to the agent, at whose mercy the Indians were.

Mrs. Grey told of one instance in which she was decoyed to a hotel where plans had been made to arrest her, but that she saw the purpose and wrote a telegram to President Roosevelt, stating that she was to be arrested and asked Major Reynolds to send it. It developed that the telegram was sent.

"Did you not at the same time send telegrams to a number of newspapers, asking them if they did not want sensational articles about your arrest?" asked Senator Dixon.

"How did you know about those telegrams?" demanded Mrs. Grey. "I am not on the stand," replied the senator.

"Well," said Mrs. Grey, "those telegrams were stolen from my handbag when I was arrested. That is one of the things I want investigated. Now I want to know what you know about it."

Senator Dixon's colleagues laughed heartily over the turning of the tables, and he said that it was stated in the press that such messages had been sent by Mrs. Grey.

"They were not sent," said the witness, "and were not intended to be sent. They were written as bluffs and intended to fall into other hands in order to prevent my arrest."

A statement was made by M. K. Sniffen, secretary of the Indian Rights association, in corroboration to large extent of Mrs. Grey's testimony.

Declares Her Statement Untrue.

Billings, Mont., April 3.—Chief of Police Talgo, who arrested Mrs. Helen Grey in Billings, declares as untrue her statement that Secretary Garfield had told him that she was a "dangerous blackmailer and adventurer." Chief Talgo says he has never met Secretary Garfield and would not know him if he met him.

ON MEMBER OF CONGRESS

Boat Company's Attorney Said to Have Brought Pressure to Bear.

Washington, April 3.—That an attorney of the Electric Boat company was pressing and "bearing down" upon a member of congress in reference to submarine boat legislation, was the charge made before the special committee of the house investigating the charges against the Electric Boat company. The charge was made by Frank L. Edinborough of Bay City, Mich., a state senator and former private secretary to Congressman Loud of that state, who is a member of the house committee on naval affairs. Mr. Edinborough testified that the attorney in question was W. D. Gordon and that the member of congress whom he was pressing was Mr. Loud.

Mr. Edinborough was not a willing witness and at first refused to answer certain questions on the ground that they were confidential owing to the fact that he had been private secretary to Mr. Loud, but Mr. Loud released him from such obligations and he then told his story.

Mr. Edinborough produced an anonymous letter which, he said, he had received in Bay City on Feb. 17 from Washington, D. C., stating that Mr. Loud had voted for the $1,476,000 grant in the naval committee, that there was a story in circulation that the Holland people had secured a prominent attorney to become a candidate for congress against Mr. Loud, that Mr. Loud had finally agreed to vote for the submarine bill on condition that the attorney withdrew as a candidate.

The other witnesses of the day were Silas L. Berger, former president of the Berger Subsurface Torpedo Boat company, and August Treadwell, Jr., assistant secretary-treasurer of the Electric Boat company. Both denied that their companies had used any improper influence to secure favorable legislation.

RIOT AT A FUNERAL.

Italian Troops Kill Three Rioters and Wound Fifteen.

Rome, April 3.—During the funeral of a workman a number of roughs who were following the hearse created serious disorders. Troops were called out and barred the passage of the procession. The rioters attempted to force their way through the ranks of the troops and stoned the soldiers, who were obliged to fire, killing three of the rioters and wounding fifteen, four of them mortally. The labor exchange is threatening a general strike as a protest.

FIGHT IN COURTROOM

One Man Killed and Five Others Are Wounded.

PRISONER SHOTS OFFICERS

On Being Convicted of Arson, Henry F. McDonald Kills a Detective, Wounds Four Other Men and is Himself Seriously Wounded.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 3.—Found guilty of a charge of arson, Henry F. McDonald, in the circuit courtroom shot and killed William E. Dwyer, seriously wounded several officers and was himself seriously wounded.

When the jury reported its verdict McDonald jumped to his feet and drew a revolver. He fired at Prosecuting Attorney James A. Cooper, Jr., but missed. Mr. Cooper dodged and McDonald directed his fire at the officers seated around the table. Detective Dwyer was shot down. Almost in an instant police officers and deputy sheriffs in the courtroom drew revolvers and opened fire on McDonald. The convicted man fell with half a dozen bullets in his body.

Harvey V. Jones, superintendent of police, was shot in the side, Deputy Sheriff Ira Wellman sustained a wound in the chin, Sylvester Doyle, city court bailiff, was shot in the leg and another shot struck a bystander.

McDonald fell to the floor, apparently dying, but later was taken to St. Anthony's hospital, where it was said he would recover.

The jurors jumped to their feet at the first shot. Judge Crane, who presided throughout the trial, rose from his chair and ran to the railing by the jury. The spectators were rushing out and confusion was everywhere. Persons in the offices below hearing the shots rushed to the upper floor and collided with the people leaving the room. A crowd of about 1,000 collected around the building in a few minutes and the police had to be called to prevent the angry people from forcing their way into the courthouse. Everyone about the room was dazed by the tragedy.

The events which culminated so tragically had their origin in the dynamiting outrages that destroyed the Methodist church and other property on the night of Feb. 21, 1907, at Sanford, a suburb of this city. Henry McDonald and James Scanlon were arrested the next day, charged with the crime. McDonald had been tried once before, the jury disagreeing. Scanlon has not been tried. McDonald had borne a rather unsavory record and the police department had been particularly active in the case, several of the officers being present to hear the verdict.

INDIANA FOR FAIRBANKS.

Delegates to Chicago Convention Instructed for Favorite Son.

Indianapolis, April 3.—The Indiana Republican state convention adopted a platform, endorsed Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks and instructed the thirty state delegates to the national convention at Chicago to vote and work for his nomination for the presidency and named the following ticket:

Governor, J. E. Watson, Rushville; Lieutenant governor, Fremont C. Goodwine, Williamsport; secretary of state, Fred A. Sims, Frankfort; auditor, John C. Billheimer, Washington; treasurer, Oscar Hadley, Plainfield; attorney general, James Bingham, Muncie; reporter of supreme court, George W. Self, Corydon; superintendent of public instruction, Lawrence McTurnan, Anderson; state statistician, J. L. Peetz, Kokomo; judge supreme court, Fifth district, Quincy A. Myers, Logansport; judge appellate court, First district, David Myers, Greensburg.

Six of the nominations were by acclamation, as the candidates were the present Republican state officials and were conceded a second term without opposition. The contest for governor was eager and it took five ballots to decide it. Mention of President Roosevelt, Vice President Fairbanks, the names of the two United States senators from Indiana and of Governor J. Frank Hanly brought from the delegates bursts of enthusiasm. The convention was one of the largest and liveliest ever held in the state.

The platform incorporated a plank written by Vice President Fairbanks insisting upon a revision of the tariff by a session of congress to be called in November after the fall elections. Other planks favored child labor laws, a local option law with the county as a unit, favored economy in public expenditures, especially mentioning the army and navy, favored a modification of the financial system, pledged a complete regulation of capitalistic combinations in the interest of trade commerce and the general welfare of the people, and urged the creation of a bureau of mines and mining.

TAFT AT COLUMBUS.

War Secretary Delivers an Address at Board of Trade Banquet.

Columbus, O., April 3.—William H. Taft, secretary of war, rounded out a busy day here by speaking at the annual dinner of the Columbus Board of Trade. The secretary arrived early and spent the greater part of the day in his rooms at the Chittenden hotel engaged in the preparation of his speech and disposing of official business. He also held a conference with A. L. Vorys, manager of his canvass for the presidential nomination, and other prominent Republican leaders of the state. Later the secretary held an informal reception for Governor Harris and other state officials and the candidates on the Republican state ticket, who had been called to Columbus by the meeting of the Republican state central committee for the perfecting of the state organization.

Secretary Taft addressed a large audience at the annual dinner of the Columbus Board of Trade at Memorial hall. About 1,200 were seated at the tables and the galleries were filled with ladies. Secretary Taft's subject was "The Army of the United States," and in an address of about an hour's length he pleaded for better treatment of the nation's soldiers.

MINUTES OF GRAND JURY

Will Be Submitted to Governor Hughes and the Legislature.

New York, April 3.—The minutes of the grand jury which inquired into Attorney General Jackson's connection with the receivership of the Hamilton bank will be submitted to Governor Hughes and to the legislature. This was decided upon by Judge Foster in the court of general sessions after arguments on a presentment handed up by the grand jury, which declared there had been a conflict in the testimony and requested the court to send the minutes to Albany. The request was opposed by counsel for the attorney general, who declared that the action of the grand jury in making the presentment was gratuitous and absolutely without authority of law. In announcing his decision, Judge Foster said there was nothing evil referred to in the presentment. He said the filing of this presentment was in accordance with the custom of grand juries to file a document of this kind when matters which do not amount to a crime but which they believe should be brought to some one's attention are seen by them. He saw nothing for him to do, he said, but to grant the request of the grand jury and have the evidence transmitted to the governor and the legislature.

PASSED BY THE HOUSE

Agricultural Appropriation Bill Favorably Acted Upon.

ATTACKED AT EVERY TURN

Its Provisions Have Undergone Many Changes—Democrats and Republicans Locked Horns on All Subsequent Business.

Washington, April 3.—Carrying a total of $11,508,806, the agricultural appropriation bill was passed by the house of representatives. It had been under discussion for nine days and from the time its consideration began until the very end, its provisions were attacked at every turn, with the result that it underwent many changes. Just before its passage, Mr. Scott of Kansas, chairman of the agricultural committee, made an unsuccessful fight to have stricken out the amendment adopted Wednesday considerably increasing the appropriation for soil investigations.

During the closing debate a brief flurry was created by Mr. Harrison of New York, a Democrat, characterizing as socialistic the bill of Minority Leader Williams providing for the utilization of the treasury surplus in the construction and improvement of roads in the several states.

With the agricultural bill out of the way the Democrats and Republicans locked horns with each other on all subsequent business, with the result that one of the most vigorous filibusters ever conducted in the house was entered upon. Majority Leader Payne threw down the gauntlet to the Democrats and notified them that the Republicans did not propose to accept their dictation as to what the programme of legislation should be. Minority Leader Williams accepted the challenge, whereupon the Democrats resorted to every obstructive tactic known to parliamentary law on every proposition that came up for consideration.

After forcing thirteen roll calls and exhausting their resources the Democrats found themselves worsted in the struggle. The majority side carried a motion by the vote of 121 to 51 to adjourn.

Suicides in Her Wedding Finery.

New York, April 3.—Mary Green, aged twenty-two, the daughter of a former sea captain, attired herself in all the finery she had planned to wear at her wedding at Easter time, and then committed suicide by gas asphyxiation. She left a note to her fiancé begging his forgiveness, but giving no reason for her suicide.

CONSUMED BY DISCUSSION

Senate Session Fails to Transact Any Business.

Washington, April 3.—The legislative session of the senate was largely consumed by discussion, without passage of a bill to reorganize the public system in the District of Columbia by placing it under the control of a director appointed by the national commissioner of education superseding the control by a board of education composed of citizens of the district.

The bill relating to the settlement of claims of states on account of the disposition of public lands was again taken up and the Bacon amendment for settling the accounts of owners of cotton seized by the government during the Civil war, amounting to $5,000,000, was considered but without results either on the bill or the amendment.

VANDERBILT DIVORCE SUIT

Defendant's Valet Is the First Witness Examined.

New York, April 3.—The first testimony in the divorce suit of Mrs. Elsie French Vanderbilt against her husband, Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, which was filed in the supreme court Wednesday, was taken before Referee David McClure, Howard Kempster, the personal valet of Mr. Vanderbilt, was the one witness called. The fact that the valet did not depart with his employer on the Mauretania caused some comment, but his appearance before the referee would indicate that the reason he did not do so was the desire of the parties to the action to rush matters through. Whether he appeared under subpoena or by arrangement was not shown. When the hearing was adjourned none of the persons interested would talk for publication, but it was admitted that the evidence and recommendations of the referee probably would be in the court before Mr. Vanderbilt reaches the other side on the Mauretania.

Usually in cases of this sort the taking of testimony does not begin for weeks after the appointment of the referee, and then is allowed to drag. The explanation for the haste shown in this case, given by those most closely interested, is that Mrs. Vanderbilt is anxious that it should be disposed of at once. Mr. Kempster was in the apartments of Mr. Vanderbilt at the Plaza hotel, but refused to see callers. He has arranged to leave for Europe as soon as his services in the present suit are no longer needed.

Target Practice Nearly Ended.

San Diego, Cal., April 3.—Wireless reports received from Magdalena Bay state that the record target practice of the Atlantic fleet is practically at an end. The Vermont, the last of the big ships to go on the ranges, has completed the firing of her 12-inch guns and is now completing her record with the rifles in the secondary battery. Most of the ships also have completed their torpedo practice, so little remains to be done at Magdalena Bay but to coal and clean the ships.

He saw nothing for him to do, he said, but to grant the request of the grand jury and have the evidence transmitted to the governor and the legislature.

Not Her Habit.

Baby Florence was much annoyed when her requests to go to see her little cousin, who was ill, were refused. On demanding the reason the "catching" qualities of her cousin's malady were explained at length, but to no avail, for she drew herself up to her infinitesimal height and slowly and scornfully lisped, "I theldom take the meathies."—Lippincott's.

PASSED BY THE HOUSE

Agricultural Appropriation Bill Favorably Acted Upon.

ATTACKED AT EVERY TURN

Its Provisions Have Undergone Many Changes—Democrats and Republicans Locked Horns on All Subsequent Business.

Washington, April 3.—Carrying a total of $11,508,806, the agricultural appropriation bill was passed by the house of representatives. It had been under discussion for nine days and from the time its consideration began until the very end, its provisions were attacked at every turn, with the result that it underwent many changes. Just before its passage, Mr. Scott of Kansas, chairman of the agricultural committee, made an unsuccessful fight to have stricken out the amendment adopted Wednesday considerably increasing the appropriation for soil investigations.

During the closing debate a brief flurry was created by Mr. Harrison of New York, a Democrat, characterizing as socialistic the bill of Minority Leader Williams providing for the utilization of the treasury surplus in the construction and improvement of roads in the several states.

With the agricultural bill out of the way the Democrats and Republicans locked horns with each other on all subsequent business, with the result that one of the most vigorous filibusters ever conducted in the house was entered upon. Majority Leader Payne threw down the gauntlet to the Democrats and notified them that the Republicans did not propose to accept their dictation as to what the programme of legislation should be. Minority Leader Williams accepted the challenge, whereupon the Democrats resorted to every obstructive tactic known to parliamentary law on every proposition that came up for consideration.

After forcing thirteen roll calls and exhausting their resources the Democrats found themselves worsted in the struggle. The majority side carried a motion by the vote of 121 to 81 to adjourn.

Suicides in Her Wedding Finery.

New York, April 3.—Mary Green, aged twenty-two, the daughter of a former sea captain, attired herself in all the finery she had planned to wear at her wedding at Easter time, and then committed suicide by gas asphyxiation. She left a note to her fiancé begging his forgiveness, but giving no reason for her suicide.

Glass Works Destroyed.

London, Ont., April 3.—Hobbs' glass works has been destroyed by fire. Adjoining buildings were damaged. The total loss will reach $300,000, 80 per cent of which is covered by insurance.

CONSUMED BY DISCUSSION

Senate Session Fails to Transact Any Business.

Washington, April 3.—The legislative session of the senate was largely consumed by discussion, without passage of a bill to reorganize the public system in the District of Columbia by placing it under the control of a director appointed by the national commissioner of education superseding the control by a board of education composed of citizens of the district.

The bill relating to the settlement of claims of states on account of the disposition of public lands was again taken up and the Bacon amendment for settling the accounts of owners of cotton seized by the government during the Civil war, amounting to $5,000,000, was considered but without results either on the bill or the amendment.

Defendant's Valet Is the First Witness Examined.

New York, April 3.—The first testimony in the divorce suit of Mrs. Elsie French Vanderbilt against her husband, Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, which was filed in the supreme court Wednesday, was taken before Referee David McClure. Howard Kempster, the personal valet of Mr. Vanderbilt, was the one witness called. The fact that the valet did not depart with his employer on the Mauretania caused some comment, but his appearance before the referee would indicate that the reason he did not do so was the desire of the parties to the action to rush matters through. Whether he appeared under subpoena or by arrangement was not shown. When the hearing was adjourned none of the persons interested would talk for publication, but it was admitted that the evidence and recommendations of the referee probably would be in the court before Mr. Vanderbilt reaches the other side on the Mauretania.

Usually in cases of this sort the taking of testimony does not begin for weeks after the appointment of the referee, and then is allowed to drag. The explanation for the haste shown in this case, given by those most closely interested, is that Mrs. Vanderbilt is anxious that it should be disposed of at once. Mr. Kempster was in the apartments of Mr. Vanderbilt at the Plaza hotel, but refused to see callers. He has arranged to leave for Europe as soon as his services in the present suit are no longer needed.

Target Practice Nearly Ended.

San Diego, Cal., April 3.—Wireless reports received from Magdalena Bay state that the record target practice of the Atlantic fleet is practically at an end. The Vermont, the last of the big ships to go on the ranges, has completed the firing of her 12-inch guns and is now completing her record with the rifles in the secondary battery. Most of the ships also have completed their torpedo practice, so little remains to be done at Magdalena Bay but to coal and clean the ships.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUSES

The republican caucuses for the city of Brainerd, for the purpose of electing delegates to the republican county convention to be held at the courthouse in this city on Thursday, April 9th, at 2 p. m., will be held tomorrow night (Saturday) between the hours of 7:30 and 8:30 o'clock at the following places.

First Ward—Gardner building, South 6th street.

Second Ward—Court House.

Third Ward—Hose House.

Fourth Ward—Hose House.

Fifth Ward—Mahlum building, corner 8th and Laurel.

The delegates elected at the county convention on Thursday of next week will attend a district convention at Elk River on April 15th and a state convention at Minneapolis on the 16th, but these conventions have nothing whatever to do with the state or congressional tickets. The Minneapolis convention will elect four delegates at large to attend the republican national convention at Chicago and four alternates, and will also elect the presidential electors for this state. The Elk River convention will elect two delegates to attend the Chicago national convention and two alternates. The caucuses to be held on Saturday evening, not only in this city and county but throughout the state, are the first steps of selecting the standard bearers of the republican party in the coming presidential campaign.

CLARENCE B. MILLER, of Duluth, has signified his intention of contesting the election of congressman with J. Adam Bede in the Eighth district at the coming election and will be a candidate for the republican nomination. The discontented ones in various parts of the district will now have a chance to show the present congressman that they were not fooling.

THE candidates for the postoffice at Aitkin have acceded to the wishes of Congressman Bede and at their village election on April 21st their names will be voted on to "show him" who is the popular choice of the people there to fill the position. If newspaper reports are true the congressman from the Eighth district is backing out of a bad tangle in the Aitkin postoffice matter.

A BILL has been introduced by Senator Knute Nelson for the appropriation by congress of $25,000 for the establishment of a fish cultural station in Minnesota, the amount to include the purchase of site, and the construction of buildings and ponds, the secretary of commerce and labor to select the site. The establishment of a station of this character by the government is a matter of considerable interest and will help advertise the advantages Minnesota already offers as the sportsman's paradise. The location of the site will be eagerly sought by different localities.

THE Alexandria Post-News, published at the home of Senator Gunderson, says: "State Senator Gunderson, as a prospective delegate to the republican national convention, is being most favorably received in other sections of the district. Although not an avowed candidate for the position, it is generally conceded that he will be one of the two delegates chosen at Elk River.

Another strong candidate is S. F. Alderman, of Brainerd, whose views on the presidential situation will conform to those of the people of the district. Both of these gentlemen are pronounced supporters of Secretary William H. Taft, of Ohio."

FIGHT IS STILL ON.

Bryan's Friends Trying to Postpone Populist Convention.

St. Louis, April 3.—The Nebraska delegation, which is here trying to secure a postponement of the Populist national convention in the interests of W. J. Bryan, made progress after two sessions were held at the conclusion of which a permanent organization had not been effected. The fight is still on, undiminished, and the friends of Bryan will continue their efforts when the convention reassembles.

The first contest came when A. M. Walling of David City, Neb., vigorously protested the manner in which members of the committee on credentials were chosen, it being held that no man had any right to serve on that committee or hold a seat in the convention unless he could show proper credentials. Mr. Walling averred that there were many delegates who were self-appointed and had no credentials from any state or organization. His protests were fruitless and he was voted down.

But the Nebraska delegates are determined and they said they would bolt if the convention attempts to place a ticket in the field. They claim they have been assured of support from other states and when the time comes the delegates from these states will leave the convention with them.

Might as Well Enjoy It.

Mr. Jackson, who had but recently moved into the suburb, knew his neighbors on either hand by sight only, and consequently on a cold winter's night when his home caught fire he was surprised and pleased by the alacrity with which they came to render their assistance.

"Say," Jackson yelled excitedly to his right hand neighbor, "will you run down to the corner and turn in the alarm?"

"I'm awfully sorry, sir," the man answered, "but I have a lame leg and can't run."

"While I'm getting out some of the things will you yell fire?" said Jackson, turning to the other man.

"Got laryngitis and can't yell," said the other in a stage whisper.

Jackson gasped; but, pulling himself together, he exclaimed:

"Well, both of you go into the house and bring out chairs, then sit down and enjoy the fire!"—Youth's Companion.

A Woman and a Watch.

"Women don't deserve to own watches," recently remarked a jeweler. "They don't know how to take care of them. A woman bought a watch from my firm recently, and I gave her strict instructions to wind it every twenty-four hours and always at the same hour as nearly as possible. Two days later she came back with it and said it had stopped. Well, I found it had run down. I told her, but she insisted she had wound it. Two or three days later she came back with the same complaint, and again I tried to impress her with the necessity for winding it. Again she insisted she had done so and went away miffed. The third time she came I asked her to show me how she had wound it. Then I made a peculiar discovery. The woman was left handed, and in attempting to wind the watch she had wound it the wrong way. I've had peculiar experiences with customers, but that beats all."—New York Sun.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUSES

The republican caucuses for the city of Brainerd, for the purpose of electing delegates to the republican county convention to be held at the courthouse in this city on Thursday, April 9th, at 2 p. m., will be held tomorrow night (Saturday) between the hours of 7:30 and 8:30 o'clock at the following places.

First Ward—Gardner building, South 6th street.
Second Ward—Court House.

The delegates elected at the county convention on Thursday of next week will attend a district convention at Elk River on April 15th and a state convention at Minneapolis on the 16th, but these conventions have nothing whatever to do with the state or congressional tickets. ### FIGHT IS STILL ON.

Bryan's Friends Trying to Postpone Populist Convention.

St. Louis, April 3.—The Nebraska delegation, which is here trying to secure a postponement of the Populist national convention in the interests of W. J. Bryan, made progress after two sessions were held at the conclusion of which a permanent organization had not been effected. The fight is still on, undiminished, and the friends of Bryan will continue their efforts when the convention reassembles.

The first contest came when A. M. Walling of David City, Neb., vigorously protested the manner in which members of the committee on credentials were chosen, it being held that no man had any right to serve on that committee or hold a seat in the convention unless he could show proper credentials. Mr. Walling averred that there were many delegates who were self-appointed and had no credentials from any state or organization. His protests were fruitless and he was voted down.

But the Nebraska delegates are determined and they said they would bolt if the convention attempts to place a ticket in the field. They claim they have been assured of support from other states and when the time comes the delegates from these states will leave the convention with them.

Might as Well Enjoy It.

Mr. Jackson, who had but recently moved into the suburb, knew his neighbors on either hand by sight only, and consequently on a cold winter's night when his home caught fire he was surprised and pleased by the alacrity with which they came to render their assistance.

"Say," Jackson yelled excitedly to his right hand neighbor, "will you run down to the corner and turn in the alarm?"

"I'm awfully sorry, sir," the man answered, "but I have a lame leg and can't run."

"While I'm getting out some of the things will you yell fire?" said Jackson, turning to the other man.

"Got laryngitis and can't yell," said the other in a stage whisper.

Jackson gasped; but, pulling himself together, he exclaimed:

"Well, both of you go into the house and bring out chairs, then sit down and enjoy the fire!"—Youth's Companion.

A Woman and a Watch.

"Women don't deserve to own watches," recently remarked a jeweler. "They don't know how to take care of them. A woman bought a watch from my firm recently, and I gave her strict instructions to wind it every twenty-four hours and always at the same hour as nearly as possible. Two days later she came back with it and said it had stopped. Well, I found it had run down. I told her, but she insisted she had wound it. Two or three days later she came back with the same complaint, and again I tried to impress her with the necessity for winding it. Again she insisted she had done so and went away miffed. The third time she came I asked her to show me how she had wound it. Then I made a peculiar discovery. The woman was left handed, and in attempting to wind the watch she had wound it the wrong way. I've had peculiar experiences with customers, but that beats all."—New York Sun.

It appears that a parent desired to place $10,000 in a trust fund for the benefit of his two children, the one ten and the other sixteen years of age, to be so divided that as they came of age they would receive the same amount of money. ## M. & I. LOSES A TAX CASE

Judge Lewis, of Supreme Court, Holds Roads Liable for Taxes not Reported

MUST PAY $1,403.85 ADDITIONAL Money Earned Hauling Logs and Picking Up Logs Must be Included in Taxation

According to a decision of Judge Lewis of the Minnesota Supreme Court, the Minnesota & International Railway company must pay gross earnings tax on the moneys earned by the company in hauling logs and picking up logs which fell from cars in transit during the years of 1899 to 1904. The Pioneer Press of Thursday contained the following:

"Judge Lewis yesterday filed his decision in the case of the state against the Minnesota & International Railroad company, granting judgment for the plaintiff in the sum of $1,403.85. The action was brought to recover a portion of the gross earnings tax for the three years 1899 to 1904, inclusive. The defendant contended that the income over which the controversy arose was exempt from taxation, as it was not derived from the operation of the railroad.

"The court finds that during the period mentioned the defendant failed to furnish a true return of all its gross earnings for taxation in that it failed to report the gross receipts derived from loading logs from the water to the cars, on which service the earnings amounted to $64,079.15, and upon which there was a tax due of $1,277.92.

"The court also finds that the defendant failed to report the gross receipts derived from the service of picking up and loading logs which had fallen from the cars, which earnings amounted to $9,628.41, and upon which there is a tax due of $125.93.

"The defendant operates a railroad running north from Brainerd."

SMALLPOX AT JENKINS

Attorneys Ryan and Warner Stumbled into Nest of it and Latter Says Woods are Full of It

According to the reports brought from Jenkins by County Attorney Warner there is lots of small pox around Jenkins and there has been gross carelessness in the handling of it. The disease is said to have started in what is known as Camp Four. A pest house was established but as soon as the lumberjacks were able to work they were turned loose. A Jenkins saloonkeeper, according to the reports, went to the camp to collect some money due him and caught the disease. He was not very sick and he and his bar tender both frequented the saloon, while suffering with the disease. Attorneys Ryan and Warner, who had been at Pequot trying a law suit, walked to Jenkins to catch a freight at the water tank there and found the station agent off duty because of the disease. Mr. Ryan, who is an old hand at the key, wired the Minnesota & International officials here for a permit to come down on a log train and after Mr. Warner had read the riot act to the village officials, who were disputing as to whose duty it was to tend to the matter, the Brainerdites got out of town as quickly as possible.

Foley's Kidney cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me much relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." Why not let it help you. H. P. Dunn. mwf dw Clark, formerly of this city, in writing to his parents of Bernhardt's sickness and death says: "He was conscious to the last and asked Mrs. Clark to say goodbye to his parents and brothers and sisters. He was a good boy while here. He expressed a desire to be buried at home where he was born. April 8—Buster Brown.

Soon—Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin.
"Bijou"

"The Stocktons" made a big hit in the skit, "The German Professor," at the Bijou last evening. Mr. Stockton is a fine German comedian and kept the crowd laughing heartily. The singing of Mrs. Stockton was also heartily applauded. The illustrated song, "I'm Dying for One Sight of You," by Miss Carmen Mahlum was beautifully illustrated and finely sung. The motion pictures were meritorious, "Shamus O'Brien," a romance of ye olden time being the headliner.

"At the Bijou"
The Unique charmed its patrons last night with a very prett program. The illustrated song, "Gypsy Ann," was the best yet and the moving pictures were remarkably good. "A Britton's Promise," a beautiful film of 1,250 feet, was the headliner. "The Cow Boy's Elopement" and "A Joyous Departure" were also very interesting. C. A. Wood, the paper king, will be an added attraction at this theatre tonight.

Buster Brown
Again we are to have "Buster Brown," as the management of the Brainerd opera house the little fun-maker and his bevy of pretty girls for Wednesday, April 8th. This year Master Reed, who plays "Buster" has fully demonstrated that he is the right little comique in the exact spot, for he is so immersed in and imbued with the spirit of Mr. Outcault's character that those who have seen him declare that he is not playing the part—that he is a typical "Buster" himself. New and elaborate scenery and costumes together with all new music grace the production this season.

Scored a Hit
The Mohr-McMillan company's program, given at the city hall Wednesday evening, contained enough variety to please the most fastidious. It contained songs, dances, elocution, impersonation, comedy and motion pictures,

Perfect Numbers.
A perfect number is one that is equal to the sum of all of its factors plus 1. Thus the factors of 6 are 3 and 2, and the sum of 3, 2 and 1 is 6. The factors of 28 are 14 and 2, 7 and 4. The sum of 14, 2, 7, 4 and 1 is 28. It might look at first as though there would be a great many perfect numbers. But there are only ten of them known to mathematicians. In addition to the 6 and 28 mentioned the other perfect numbers are the following: 496, 8,128, 33,550,336, 8,589,869,056, 137,438,691,328, 2,305,843,008,139,952, 128, 2,417,851,639,228,158,837,784,576 and 9,903,520,314,282,971,830,448,816,128. If there are any others they are larger than the ones mentioned and have never been discovered.

The action was brought to recover a portion of the gross earnings tax for the three years 1899 to 1904, inclusive. The defendant contended that the income over which the controversy arose was exempt from taxation, as it was not derived from the operation of the railroad.

"The court finds that during the period mentioned the defendant failed to furnish a true return of all its gross earnings for taxation in that it failed to report the gross receipts derived from loading logs from the water to the cars, on which service the earnings amounted to $64,079.15, and upon which there is due a tax of $1,277.92.

"The court also finds that the defendant failed to report the gross receipts derived from the service of picking up and loading logs which had fallen from the cars, which earnings amounted to $9,628.41, and upon which there is a tax due of $125.93.

"The defendant operates a railroad running north from Brainerd."

SMALLPOX AT JENKINS

Attorneys Ryan and Warner Stumbled into Nest of it and Latter Says Woods are Full of It

According to the reports brought from Jenkins by County Attorney Warner there is lots of small pox around Jenkins and there has been gross carelessness in the handling of it. The disease is said to have started in what is known as Camp Four. A pest house was established but as soon as the lumberjacks were able to work they were turned loose. A Jenkins saloonkeeper, according to the reports, went to the camp to collect some money due him and caught the disease. He was not very sick and he and his bar tender both frequented the saloon, while suffering with the disease. Attorneys Ryan and Warner, who had been at Pequot trying a law suit, walked to Jenkins to catch a freight at the water tank there and found the station agent off duty because of the disease. Mr. Ryan, who is an old hand at the key, wired the Minnesota & International officials here for a permit to come down on a log train and after Mr. Warner had read the riot act to the village officials, who were disputing as to whose duty it was to tend to the matter, the Brainerdites got out of town as quickly as possible.

Foley's Kidney cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me much relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." Why not let it help you. H. P. Dunn. mwf dw

W. R. Clark, formerly of this city, in writing to his parents of Bernhardt's sickness and death says: "He was conscious to the last and asked Mrs. Clark to say goodbye to his parents and brothers and sisters. He was a good boy while here. He expressed a desire to be buried at home where he was born. We did what we could for him but he was taken worse suddenly and only lasted a few hours, dying peacefully at 9:45 o'clock this morning (Mar. 25th)."

"Bijou"

"The Stocktons" made a big hit in the skit, "The German Professor," at the Bijou last evening. Mr. Stockton is a fine German comedian and kept the crowd laughing heartily. The singing of Mrs. Stockton was also heartily applauded. The illustrated song, "I'm Dying for one Sight of You," by Miss Carmen Mahlum was beautifully illustrated and finely sung. The motion pictures were meritorious, "Shamus O'Brien," a romance of yesteryear time being the headliner.

"At the Jinks"

The Unique charmed its patrons last night with a very pretty program. The illustrated song, "Gypsy Ann," was the best yet and the moving pictures were remarkably good. "A Britton's Promise," a beautiful film of 1,250 feet, was the headliner. "The Cow Boy's Elopement" and "A Joyous Departure" were also very interesting. C. A. Wood, the paper king, will be an added attraction at this theatre tonight.

Buster Brown

Again we are to have "Buster Brown," as the management of the Brainerd opera house the little fun-maker and his bevy of pretty girls for Wednesday, April 8th. This year Master Reed, who plays "Buster" has fully demonstrated that he is the right little comique in the exact spot, for he is so immersed in and imbued with the spirit of Mr. Outcault's character that those who have seen him declare that he is not playing the part—that he is a typical "Buster" himself. New and elaborate scenery and costumes together with all new music grace the production this season.

Perfect Numbers.

And every number was enthusiastically received by the large audience. The character studies of Florence Jerome Mohr have seldom, if ever, been surpassed in Anoka by traveling artists, and her very appearance before the footlights created a favorable impression. Pauline Weir's was good, especially her exhibition of Indian club swinging, which was away above the ordinary. Little Corinne Fleming and Joe Colling (the man with many voices) each scored a hit.—Anoka (Minn.) Free Press, Jan. 23, 1908.

Perfect Numbers.

A perfect number is one that is equal to the sum of all of its factors plus 1. Thus the factors of 6 are 3 and 2, and the sum of 3, 2 and 1 is 6. The factors of 28 are 14 and 2, 7 and 4. The sum of 14, 2, 7, 4 and 1 is 28. It might look at first as though there would be a great many perfect numbers. But there are only ten of them known to mathematicians. In addition to the 6 and 28 mentioned the other perfect numbers are the following: 496, 8,128, 33,550,336, 8,589,869,056, 137,438,691,328, 2,305,843,008,139,952, 128,241,781,639,228,158,837,784,576 and 9,003,520,314,282,971,830,448,816,128. If there are any others they are larger than the ones mentioned and have never been discovered.

OF DIFFERENT NATURE.

Replies of Operators to Invitation to Confer With Miners.

Indianapolis, April 3.—Various attitudes on the part of the mine operators are indicated in the telegraphic replies to President Lewis' invitation for a conference between the miners and operators of the central competitive field, composed of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Western Pennsylvania, in Indianapolis April 6.

"I have received replies of different nature from various operators regarding the conference I propose, but I don't feel at liberty to give them out until I have received them all. My reason is this: Frankly, if I give out the attitude of those operators from whom I have received replies regarding the conference it might influence others from whom I have not yet heard and who are considering the matter."

From President Lewis' words it is gathered that at least some of the operators are unfavorable toward the proposed meeting here.

President Lewis announced that the miners and operators of the South western competitive field would hold a joint conference at Kansas City Monday or Tuesday to enter into a new wage scale and sign up contracts for the coming year. The old schedule will probably be renewed. This is regarded as a victory for the new president.

Normal Schools.

Normal schools originated in Germany and were for a considerable period confined to that country. The first was organized at Stettin, in Prussia, in 1735; the next by Frederick the Great at Berlin in 1748; another was opened in Hanover in 1757, and others followed in various parts of Germany. The first school for the instruction of teachers in France was established in 1810, the first in Holland in 1816 and in England in 1830. The first normal school in the United States was opened in 1839.—New York American.

MANY INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE ADOPT NEW THEORY

Statements from Followers of Cooper Obtained Recently in Various Cities.

A number of statements from prominent people located in various cities where the widespread discussion over L. T. Cooper's new theory regarding the human stomach has recently waged, give an idea of the intense interest the young man has aroused during the past year. The statements are as follows:

Mr. C. D. Mitchell, of 2412 Avenue C, Birmingham, Ala., has this to say with regard to his belief in Cooper's medicine: "I have been troubled with indigestion and stomach trouble for the past year. I had heartburn, bloating after eating, gas on stomach and bowels, palpitation of the heart, pain in the lower part of my back, and various other symptoms, and was a victim of much distress. I tried many remedies, but received little or no benefit from them. I was advised to try the Cooper preparations, and did so. In one week's time I was improved wonderfully—the first relief I had been able to obtain. Mr. Cooper's medicine does all he claims for it."

Mr. J. O. Spradling, of 705 South Tejon Street, Colorado Springs, Colo., says: "I was troubled with indigestion for two years. It caused me a great deal of suffering and misery. I did not dare to eat meat at all, and everything I did eat soured on my stomach. I tried various remedies, but found no relief. Three months ago I started taking Cooper's New Discovery, and after using the contents of three bottles I was entirely cured. I can now eat and relish anything that my appetite craves. The New Discovery is truly a great stomach medicine."

Mr. Wm. Codier, of 408 Graves Street, Syracuse, N. Y., is very strong in his expression of belief in the new medicine, and has the following to say on the subject: "I have suffered from catarrh of the nose and throat for four years. It must have been communicated to my stomach, for all this time my stomach has given me a great deal of trouble, and caused me much pain and suffering. My stomach was often sour, and my food did not digest. I was bothered by a continual desire to spit, and there was a constant dropping of mucus into the throat."

"The first relief I have been able to obtain is from Cooper's New Discovery, which I have been taking for about a week. My catarrhal condition has been greatly improved and my stomach is almost well. Mr. Cooper's medicine has benefited me more than anything I have ever used."

"These statements are from reliable citizens in various communities who have tried these celebrated medicines. We sell them and will gladly explain their nature to any one interested."

CRIMES OF THE REDS.

Outrages Recalled by Recent Bomb Throwing in New York.

GRAPHIC FORERUNNER IN 1889

How Group of Belgian Anarchists Were Foiled—Haymarket Outrage in Chicago—Father Heinrichs' Murder and Attempt to Kill Chief Shipley of Chicago Their Latest Deeds.

First of its kind in New York, the Union square anarchistic demonstration had a singularly graphic forerunner in 1889—so graphic, in fact, that it is entirely possible that the "reds" who had memory of the former affair might have inspired the deed recently perpetrated.

In 1888 and 1889 New York was invaded by a group of Belgian anarchists. They came singly and by twos and by agreement made a rendezvous at Maspeth, N. Y. The police had a fairly accurate line on the arrivals and kept them under strict surveillance.

As soon as the newcomers became settled they grew bold and announced a meeting for the unemployed and dissatisfied, to be held in Union square, just such a meeting as was planned for the other day; also they applied for a permit to hold the meeting, and this was granted on condition there should be no inflammatory speeches. The police were present in large number and kept the lid so tightly on the oratory that the anarchists found their customary grievance.

Immediately they started to manufacture dynamite bombs for the purpose of wreaking their revenge against the police. Two basketfuls of these bombs were brought to New York from Maspeth and stored in a tenement house at Eleventh street and First avenue by two women. The same afternoon the police made a raid on the place and confiscated the bombs. Finding their plan foiled, the local "reds" fled and continued quiescent for some time.

Notwithstanding the severity with which the New York police have handled the known anarchists that city has come to be admittedly the anarchistic center of the world. New York is not only linked closely to every other center of anarchism, but it is from that city that nearly all the wires are pulled. Nearly every anarchist of prominence has at one time or another made his home in New York, screened from publicity by the size of the city and secure through the inadequacy of means for his suppression. The relatively small group at Paterson, N. J., which has gained for that city an unenviable name as a hotbed of scarletism, is known by those thoroughly familiar with the workings of the anarchists to be subservient to New York domination.

Anarchism first came to be taken seriously in New York at the time of the Haymarket outrage in Chicago in 1886. On the night of May 4 three bombs were thrown into a crowd of police detailed to keep order at a meeting the object of which ostensibly was to discuss the strike situation in the Deering Harvester works in Chicago. The country was horrified and terror stricken by the killing and wounding of nearly a hundred men. Twenty-two policemen were hardest hit, three of them being killed outright, three more dying within a few days and the others being badly hurt.

This event and the trial and execution of the Chicago anarchists that followed served to call attention to the anarchists that made their headquarters in New York. The police became active and rounded up every known "red." Many of them were locked up, but there was little punishment, owing to the difficulty of establishing a legal charge against them. Since that time, however, the anarchists of New York have been watched more carefully than those of any other city.

In the summer of 1900, before Gaetano Bresci, the Paterson anarchist, assassinated King Humbert of Italy, there was a great deal of activity among the New York anarchists, but no overt acts were committed which could be made the basis of legal action. As in the case of the Chicago Haymarket, there were a bull and a scurrying to cover by the anarchists after the assassination of King Humbert. Then came jubilation as publicly as the "reds" dared to make it.

Lucy Parsons, the widow of one of the Chicago anarchists who were hanged, made a speech in that city lauding the act of Bresci and was locked up. In New York the International Invincibles, as the local anarchists styled themselves for the occasion, held a public meeting to praise the heroism of the assassin of King Humbert. In Paterson also the anarchists came out of their holes long enough to sing a song of praise to Bresci.

These public demonstrations revived police activity and inspired a deeper fear in the public. The favorite headquarters of the New York anarchists, in Macdougall street and in Gold street, were watched, and occasional raids were made when the talk took on too crimson a hue. This policy of suppression had the effect of driving the "reds" out of public attention for nearly a year.

The assassination the following year of President McKinley had been preceded for a few weeks by unusual anarchistic oratorical activity. Johann Most, with his Freiheit in New York; Pedro Esteve, with his La Question Sociale, and other anarchistic leaders with other publications had been fanning their followers into action and barely managing to keep out of jail. When these teachings and spurs to overt action filtered into the feeble mind of Czolgosz and resulted in the assassination every known anarchist in the country dropped out of sight except the few who were nabbed by the police so quickly they did not have time to disappear.

As at the time of the Haymarket, the assassination of King Humbert and other previous anarchistic achievements, every anarchistic head was kept below the surface in all the cities until the excitement and public feeling against them subsided. Then public meetings again were held, and most of the speeches were in praise of Czolgosz. Johann Most was arrested in New York, Emma Goldman in Chicago and hundreds of others in various cities. These arrests had little effect on account of the difficulty of obtaining jail sentences for the "reds."

The next wave of blatant anarchism came in 1902, when rabid utterances by various anarchists led the authorities to believe a plot was being hatched to assassinate Prince Henry during his visit to the United States. The utmost vigilance was exerted by both the municipal police departments and the federal government to prevent the culmination of the supposed plot.

Up to 1905, presumably because of the fear instilled by the high public feeling following the assassination of President McKinley, the anarchists were quiet. In January of that year they began to attract public attention again by their meetings in sympathy for the revolutionists in Russian and the assassins of that period abroad. From that time to the assassination of Father Leo Heinrichs in Denver a few weeks ago the blatancy and daring of the anarchists increased.

In November, 1906, Emma Goldman, with six other women and five men, was arrested in New York at a meeting at which speeches laudatory of Czolgosz were being made. Johann Most had died, but his place had been taken by Alexander Berkman, who had finished a term of thirteen years for the attempted assassination of Henry C. Frick. Berkman is at present editor, with Emma Goldman, of Mother Earth, an inflammatory paper at 210 East Thirteenth street, New York.

Dozens of groups held meetings constantly in New York under various names and often tried to capture other meetings. La Question Sociale, Freiheit, Mother Earth, the Arbeiter Zeitung of Chicago, one of the editors of which was Hippolyte Havel, another of Emma Goldman's "friends," and other less rabid anarchistic organs flourished. The German groups in New York held their celebrations in commemoration of the commune undisturbed in the Bronx. The Chicago groups each year spread red flowers on the graves of the anarchists who were hanged and who were buried in Waldheim cemetery.

The assassination of Father Leo was followed quickly by the attempt to kill George Shipley, chief of police of Chicago, and the killing instead by Shipley of the would be assassin.

CHURCH FOR SMOKERS.

Atlantic City to Have One Where Also Coats May Be Shed.

Religious services exclusively for men in which the congregation will be privileged to smoke and divest coat and collar if desired is an innovation planned by the Rev. Sydney Goodman, assistant rector of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension in Atlantic City, N. J.

The church for men is to be conducted in the new parish hall recently erected, adjoining the church in Kentucky avenue. The auditorium has a seating capacity for 350 persons. Services are to be held immediately after the regular Sunday evening service.

A moving picture show will afford entertainment. Mr. Goodman feels that many men who refrain from attending church services by reason of embarrassment due to the presence of the fair sex will take advantage of the opportunity to listen to religious topics expressed in a practical manner.

Strawberry Sandwich.

Those who have the cash and are not afraid to attack any strange dish on a bill of fare are confronted by a new gastronomic joy, says the New York Press. It's the strawberry sandwich. To make that delectable delicacy wafer-like slices of bread are dipped in thick cream and chilled. After that chilling sliced strawberries are laid between the pieces of cream-bread, with a powdering of sugar. Again the sandwich is chilled, after which, glowing gourmets assert, the "ideal sandwich" is ready to be eaten by a sinner at a Lenten tea.

April Lady.

The April Lady's here again, With all her ancient wiles. The river dimples with her rain. And sparkling with her smiles. That childlike changeableness of hers— Perhaps you've noticed that— Thermometers, barometers, They know not where they're at.

She'll woo you with a coaxing air To seek the wild flower dale. Then turn upon you unaware And rend you, hat and veil. If you decline to "sandal shoon," Be sure they're rubber soled. For oftentimes her sunniest noon A cloudburst will unfold.

Anon she'll grant a day so dear, With dreamlike fairy climes. We'll really fancy she's sincere And fall to writing rhymes. This gift of dreams is hers of old, Largest to all who will. In azure, opal pearl and gold, From sky and field and hill.

O April Lady, you're a mix When mischief is your mood; At other times, a wistful sphinx, On mysteries you brood. And, though you tease, beguile, surprise, Your dute notes breathe good cheer. We would not have you otherwise Nor lose you from our year.

MANY OF THE CREW PERISH

British Torpedo Boat Destroyer Sunk by a Cruiser.

Portsmouth, Eng., April 3.—A wireless report received here says that during the night maneuvers in the channel the cruiser Berwick ran down the torpedo boat destroyer Tiger.

The Tiger was cut in half and speedily sank. Boats from the Berwick and the cruiser Gladiator picked up twenty-two men, one of whom died later of his injuries. It is believed that the Tiger had a crew of forty-five men and that all the others were drowned.

It appears that the Portsmouth reserve flotilla was having maneuvers and that during a night attack the Tiger crossed the bows of the Berwick, which crashed into her. Most of the crew of the destroyer were below at the time, dressed in heavy oil skins and sea boots.

Details of the accident cannot be obtained until the arrival here of the Gladiator with the survivors.

The torpedo boat destroyer Tiger was launched in 1900. Her length was 210 feet, breadth of beam 21 feet and indicated horse power 6,400. Her maximum speed was 30 knots and her ordinary complement of men sixty.

OF DIFFERENT NATURE.

Replies of Operators to Invitation to Confer With Miners.

Indianapolis, April 3.—Various attitudes on the part of the mine operators are indicated in the telegraphic replies to President Lewis' invitation for a conference between the miners and operators of the central competitive field, composed of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Western Pennsylvania, in Indianapolis April 6.

"I have received replies of different nature from various operators regarding the conference I propose, but I don't feel at liberty to give them out until I have received them all. My reason is this: Frankly, if I give out the attitude of those operators from whom I have received replies regarding the conference it might influence others from whom I have not yet heard and who are considering the matter."

From President Lewis' words it is gathered that at least some of the operators are unfavorable toward the proposed meeting here.

President Lewis announced that the miners and operators of the South western competitive field would hold a joint conference at Kansas City Monday or Tuesday to enter into a new wage scale and sign up contracts for the coming year. The old schedule will probably be renewed. This is regarded as a victory for the new president.

Normal Schools.

Normal schools originated in Germany and were for a considerable period confined to that country. The first was organized at Stettin, in Prussia, in 1735; the next by Frederick the Great at Berlin in 1748; another was opened in Hanover in 1757, and others followed in various parts of Germany. The first school for the instruction of teachers in France was established in 1810, the first in Holland in 1816 and in England in 1830. The first normal school in the United States was opened in 1839.—New York American.

MANY INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE ADOPT NEW THEORY

Statements from Followers of Cooper Obtained Recently in Various Cities.

A number of statements from prominent people located in various cities where the widespread discussion over L. T. Cooper's new theory regarding the human stomach has recently waged, give an idea of the intense interest the young man has aroused during the past year. The statements are as follows:

Mr. C. D. Mitchell, of 2412 Avenue C, Birmingham, Ala., has this to say with regard to his belief in Cooper's medicine: "I have been troubled with indigestion and stomach trouble for the past year. I had heartburn, bloating after eating, gas on stomach and bowels, palpitation of the heart, pain in the lower part of my back, and various other symptoms, and was a victim of much distress. I tried many remedies, but received little or no benefit from them. I was advised to try the Cooper preparations, and did so. In one week's time I was improved wonderfully—the first relief I had been able to obtain. Mr. Cooper's medicine does all he claims for it."

Mr. J. O. Spradling, of 705 South Tejon Street, Colorado Springs, Colo., says: "I was troubled with indigestion for two years. It caused me a great deal of suffering and misery. I did not dare to eat meat at all, and everything I did eat soured on my stomach. I tried various remedies, but found no relief. Three months ago I started taking Cooper's New Discovery, and after using the contents of three bottles I was entirely cured. I can now eat and relish anything that my appetite craves. The New Discovery is truly a great stomach medicine."

Mr. Wm. Codier, of 403 Graves Street, Syracuse, N. Y., is very strong in his expression of belief in the new medicine, and has the following to say on the subject: "I have suffered from catarrh of the nose and throat for four years. It must have been communicated to my stomach, for all this time my stomach has given me a great deal of trouble, and caused me much pain and suffering. My stomach was often sour, and my food did not digest. I was bothered by a continual desire to spit, and there was a constant dropping of mucus into the throat."

"The first relief I have been able to obtain is from Cooper's New Discovery, which I have been taking for about a week. My catarrhal condition has been greatly improved and my stomach is almost well. Mr. Cooper's medicine has benefited me more than anything I have ever used."

These statements are from reliable citizens in various communities who have tried these celebrated medicines. We sell them and will gladly explain their nature to any one interested.—H. P. Dunn & Co.

CRIMES OF THE REDS.

Outrages Recalled by Recent Bomb Throwing in New York.

GRAPHIC FORERUNNER IN 1889

How Group of Belgian Anarchists Were Foiled—Haymarket Outrage in Chicago—Father Heinrichs' Murder and Attempt to Kill Chief Shipley of Chicago Their Latest Deeds.

First of its kind in New York, the Union square anarchistic demonstration had a singularly graphic forerunner in 1889—so graphic, in fact, that it is entirely possible that the "reds" who had memory of the former affair might have inspired the deed recently perpetrated.

In 1888 and 1889 New York was invaded by a group of Belgian anarchists. They came singly and by twos and by agreement made a rendezvous at Maspeth, N. Y. The police had a fairly accurate line on the arrivals and kept them under strict surveillance.

As soon as the newcomers became settled they grew bold and announced a meeting for the unemployed and dissatisfied, to be held in Union square, just such a meeting as was planned for the other day; also they applied for a permit to hold the meeting, and this was granted on condition there should be no inflammatory speeches. The police were present in large number and kept the lid so tightly on the oratory that the anarchists found their customary grievance.

Immediately they started to manufacture dynamite bombs for the purpose of wreaking their revenge against the police. Two basketfuls of these bombs were brought to New York from Maspeth and stored in a tenement house at Eleventh street and First avenue by two women. The same afternoon the police made a raid on the place and confiscated the bombs. Finding their plan foiled, the local "reds" fled and continued quiescent for some time.

Notwithstanding the severity with which the New York police have handled the known anarchists that city has come to be admittedly the anarchistic center of the world. New York is not only linked closely to every other center of anarchism, but it is from that city that nearly all the wires are pulled. Nearly every anarchist of prominence has at one time or another made his home in New York, screened from publicity by the size of the city and secure through the inadequacy of means for his suppression. The relatively small group at Paterson, N. J., which has gained for that city an unenviable name as a hotbed of scarletism, is known by those thoroughly familiar with the workings of the anarchists to be subservient to New York domination.

Anarchism first came to be taken seriously in New York at the time of the Haymarket outrage in Chicago in 1886. On the night of May 4 three bombs were thrown into a crowd of people detailed to keep order at a meeting the object of which ostensibly was to discuss the strike situation in the Deering Harvester works in Chicago. The country was horrified and terror stricken by the killing and wounding of nearly a hundred men. Twenty-two policemen were hardest hit, three of them being killed outright, three more dying within a few days and the others being badly hurt.

This event and the trial and execution of the Chicago anarchists that followed served to call attention to the anarchists that made their headquarters in New York. The police became active and rounded up every known "red." Many of them were locked up, but there was little punishment, owing to the difficulty of establishing a legal charge against them. Since that time, however, the anarchists of New York have been watched more carefully than those of any other city.

In the summer of 1900, before Gaetano Bresci, the Paterson anarchist, assassinated King Humbert of Italy, there was a great deal of activity among the New York anarchists, but no overt acts were committed which could be made the basis of legal action. As in the case of the Chicago Haymarket, there were a bull and a scurrying to cover by the anarchists after the assassination of King Humbert. Then came jubilation as publicly as the "reds" dared to make it.

Lucy Parsons, the widow of one of the Chicago anarchists who were hanged, made a speech in that city lauding the act of Bresci and was locked up in New York the International Invincibles, as the local anarchists styled themselves for the occasion, held a public meeting to praise the heroism of the assassin of King Humbert. In Paterson also the anarchists came out of their holes long enough to sing a song of praise to Bresci.

These public demonstrations revived police activity and inspired a deeper fear in the public. The favorite headquarters of the New York anarchists, in Macdougall street and in Gold street, were watched, and occasional raids were made when the talk took on too crimson a hue. This policy of suppression had the effect of driving the "reds" out of public attention for nearly a year.

The assassination the following year of President McKinley had been preceded for a few weeks by unusual anarchist oratorical activity. Johann Most, with his Freiheit in New York; Pedro Esteve, with his La Question Sociale, and other anarchistic leaders with other publications had been fanning their followers into action and barely managing to keep out of jail. When these teachings and spurs to overt action filtered into the feeble mind of Czolgosz and resulted in the assassination every known anarchist in the country dropped out of sight except the few who were nabbed by the police so quickly they did not have time to disappear.

As at the time of the Haymarket, the assassination of King Humbert and other previous anarchistic achievements, every anarchistic head was kept below the surface in all the cities until the excitement and public feeling against them subsided. Then public meetings again were held, and most of the speeches were in praise of Czolgosz. Johann Most was arrested in New York, Emma Goldman in Chicago and hundreds of others in various cities. These arrests had little effect on account of the difficulty of obtaining jail sentences for the "reds."

The next wave of blatant anarchism came in 1902, when rabid utterances by various anarchists led the authorities to believe a plot was being hatched to assassinate Prince Henry during his visit to the United States. The utmost vigilance was exerted by both the municipal police departments and the federal government to prevent the culmination of the supposed plot.

Up to 1905, presumably because of the fear instilled by the high public feeling following the assassination of President McKinley, the anarchists were quiet. In January of that year they began to attract public attention again by their meetings in sympathy for the revolutionists in Russian and the assassins of that period abroad. From that time to the assassination of Father Leo Heinrichs in Denver a few weeks ago the blatant and daring of the anarchists increased.

In November, 1906, Emma Goldman, with six other women and five men, was arrested in New York at a meeting at which speeches laudatory of Czolgosz were being made. Johann Most had died, but his place had been taken by Alexander Berkman, who had finished a term of thirteen years for the attempted assassination of Henry C. Frick. Berkman is at present editor, with Emma Goldman, of Mother Earth, an inflammatory paper at 210 East Thirteenth street, New York.

Dozens of groups held meetings constantly in New York under various names and often tried to capture other meetings. La Question Sociale, Freiheit, Mother Earth, the Arbeiter Zeitung of Chicago, one of the editors of which was Hippolyte Havel, another of Emma Goldman's "friends," and other less rabid anarchistic organs flourished. The German groups in New York held their celebrations in commemoration of the commune undisturbed in the Bronx. The Chicago groups each year spread red flowers on the graves of the anarchists who were hanged and who were buried in Waldheim cemetery.

The assassination of Father Leo was followed quickly by the attempt to kill George Shipley, chief of police of Chicago, and the killing instead by Shipley of the would be assassin.

CHURCH FOR SMOKERS.

Atlantic City to Have One Where Also Coats May Be Shed.

Religious services exclusively for men in which the congregation will be privileged to smoke and divest coat and collar if desired is an innovation planned by the Rev. Sydney Goodman, assistant rector of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension in Atlantic City, N. J.

The church for men is to be conducted in the new parish hall recently erected, adjoining the church in Kentucky avenue. The auditorium has a seating capacity for 350 persons. Services are to be held immediately after the regular Sunday evening service.

A moving picture show will afford entertainment. Mr. Goodman feels that many men who refrain from attending church services by reason of embarrassment due to the presence of the fair sex will take advantage of the opportunity to listen to religious topics expressed in a practical manner.

Strawberry Sandwich.

Those who have the cash and are not afraid to attack any strange dish on a bill of fare are confronted by a new gastronomic joy, says the New York Press. It's the strawberry sandwich. To make that delectable delicacy wafer-like slices of bread are dipped in thick cream and chilled. After that chilling sliced strawberries are laid between the pieces of cream bread, with a powdering of sugar. Again the sandwich is chilled, after which, glowing gourmets assert, the "ideal sandwich" is ready to be eaten by a sinner at a Lenten tea.

April Lady.

The April Lady's here again. With all her ancient wiles. The river dingles with her rain. While sparkling with her smiles. That childlike changeableness of hers—Perhaps you've noticed that—Thermometers, barometers. They know not where they're at.

She'll woo you with a coaxing air To seek the wild flower dale. Then turn upon you unaware And rend you, hat and veil. If you decline to "sandal shoon," Be sure they're rubber soled. For oftentimes her sunniest noon A cloudburst will unfold.

Anon she'll grant a day so dear, With dreams of fairy climes. We'll really fancy she's sincere And fall to writing rhymes. This gift of dreams is hers of old, Largest to all who will. In azure, opal pearl and gold, From sky and field and hill.

O April Lady, you're a minx When mischief is your mood; At other times, a wistful sphinx, On mystery you brood. And, though you tease, beguile, surprise, Your flute notes breathe good cheer. We would not have you otherwise Nor lose you from our year.—Alice E. Hanscom in Woman's Home Companion.

MANY OF THE CREW PERISH

British Torpedo Boat Destroyer Sunk by a Cruiser.

Portsmouth, Eng., April 3.—A wireless report received here says that during the night maneuvers in the channel the cruiser Berwick ran down the torpedo boat destroyer Tiger.

The Tiger was cut in half and speedily sank. Boats from the Berwick and the cruiser Gladiator picked up twenty-two men, one of whom died later of his injuries. It is believed that the Tiger had a crew of forty-five men and that all the others were drowned.

It appears that the Portsmouth reserve flotilla was having maneuvers and that during a night attack the Tiger crossed the bows of the Berwick, which crashed into her. Most of the crew of the destroyer were below at the time, dressed in heavy oilskins and sea boots.

Details of the accident cannot be obtained until the arrival here of the Gladiator with the survivors.

The torpedo boat destroyer Tiger was launched in 1900. Her length was 210 feet, breadth of beam 21 feet and indicated horse power 6,400. Her maximum speed was 30 knots and her ordinary complement of men sixty.

INDIAN KILLS DANCERS.

Enters Ballroom and Shoots Two White Men.

Tahlequah, Okla., April 3.—During a country dance eight miles south of here, Bert Hampton, a fullblood Cherokee Indian, entered the room and without provocation shot and killed Joe Eonhannon and Arch Barsha, both substantial white farmers living in the neighborhood. Before the dancers realized what was going on the murderer fled. No trace of him has been found. Hampton is said to have been under the influence of liquor.
